The instant letters patent appeal raises questions of paramount importance in relation to the rights of owners-cum-farmers of State of Punjab at Indo-Pak international border area, comprising the revenue districts of Fazilka, Ferozepur, Tarn-Taran, Amritsar, Gurdaspur etc. in the State of Punjab.

[2] A strip of land measuring 44 feet wide was allegedly acquired by the State of Punjab for Union of India for the fencing of Indo-Pak border, in the years 1988-1991. The agricultural land located between the 'fencing' and the actual international border continuous to be owned by farmers living
